Location: Monona, WI

Job Summary

Come join our amazing team and make a difference by providing hope and improving the quality of lives of people we serve!

The Samaritan Counseling Center of Southern Wisconsin is a nonprofit mental health clinic that specializes in spiritually integrating one's faith into the counseling process if that is something that the client chooses. We have both religious and non-religious clients that utilize our individual, couples, and family therapy, as well as our education programs.

Experience Requirements:

- Master's or Doctor's degree in social work or appropriate field
- Clinical training and experience, validated by full state licensure in social work or appropriate field
- Ability to use and have familiarity with the language and methodology of diagnoses and diagnostic tests
- Ability to assess a client's therapeutic needs, to establish a therapeutic relationship, and to conduct, complete, evaluate, and terminate that therapy
- Be comfortable and committed to the integration of spirituality and faith in our relationships with our colleagues and clients

Work Environment:

- Supportive and collaborative team of therapists
- Staff casing and consultation amongst Center's therapists
- Front office staff assistance in credentialing with insurance panels, scheduling client appointments, and client payment collection
- Contracts with multiple insurance groups including big HMOs in the Dane county area
- Knowledgeable insurance biller that handles all insurance billing

Licensure:

- LCSW, LPC, LMFT, or Licensed Clinical Psychologist

Benefits:

- Initial starting salary while you build your caseload
- Health Insurance
- Retirement Plan and Retirement Matching
- Flex Spending Account
